

CPD Competencies

The training material has been accredited by the College of Pharmacy Practice against the Royal Pharmaceutical Society's CPD competencies. Participating in the training and using it to follow the CPD cycle will assist pharmacists to fulfil the following competencies:-

C1 Working with patients and the public to maximise the efficacy, safety and cost effectiveness of Medicines

C1a Assessing the medication needs of patients

C1f Providing advice & counselling e.g. related to minor ailments, medicines for purchase, appliances, self care

C1j Recording and reporting adverse drug reactions

C2 Working with patients and the public to promote health

C2c Creating and making use of opportunities to encourage healthy lifestyles

C4 Working with other professions in healthcare and with other sectors

C4a Acting on referrals from GPs and NHS Direct

C4g Working across professional boundaries

C4k Signposting to other healthcare or social care provision

C7 Working in a business context

C7d Marketing services and products to identified customer groups

Accreditation by the College of Pharmacy Practice does not imply endorsement of the efficacy or safety of the product, for which responsibility rests with the holder of the Marketing Authorisation.